POLICY STATEMENT

Intent:

Christian Heritage College (CHC) recognises that the goals of overseas students can alter throughout the period of their course of study and, consequently, that it may be necessary for overseas students to withdraw from their course of study at CHC.

Formal application for withdrawal assists staff in tracking overseas students' enrolments and provides a mechanism whereby accurate advice can be given in order to assist overseas students in the most appropriate ways to achieve their personal academic goals.

From time to time, CHC may find it necessary to cancel the enrolment of an overseas student for reasons of gross misconduct. During those times, clear communication regarding processes and the sets of circumstances which may result in the cancellation of an overseas student's enrolment is paramount.

Scope:

Restricted to: Overseas students undertaking a course of study at CHC.

Excluded: Domestic Students.

Objectives:

1. To provide clear guidelines concerning cancellation of enrolment for overseas students that is initiated by students.
2. To provide clear guidelines concerning cancellation of enrolment for overseas students that is initiated by CHC.
3. To ensure compliance with the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (the National Code), in particular Standard 9.

Policy Provisions:

1. General

- 1.1 Cancellation of an overseas student's enrolment can be initiated by an overseas student or by CHC.
- 1.2 Cancellation of enrolment that is initiated by an overseas student is known as 'withdrawal'.
- 1.3 An overseas student may withdraw from CHC at any time during their course of study, subject to the academic and financial penalties as declared by CHC.
 - 1.3.1 An overseas student who wishes to withdraw from CHC within the first six months of their course of study in order to enrol at another registered provider is to refer to CHC Policy: Overseas Student Transfers.
- 1.4 CHC is permitted to cancel an overseas student's enrolment for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - 1.4.1 misbehaviour, by breaching the provisions of CHC Policy: Student Code of Conduct and/or CHC Policy: Academic Integrity;
 - 1.4.2 failing to pay a required amount to undertake or continue their course of study as stated in the Written Agreement, including the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) premium where an overseas student has requested that CHC make OSHC arrangements on their behalf; and
 - 1.4.3 failing to maintain satisfactory course progress.
- 1.5 All Library borrowing rights and access to CHC services are revoked when an overseas student withdraws from their enrolment at CHC, or when their enrolment is cancelled by CHC.
- 1.6 If CHC notifies an overseas student that it intends to cancel the student's enrolment, the student is able to access CHC Policy: Grievance Policy for Overseas Students (hereafter referred to as "the grievance process").

2. Cancellation of Enrolment Initiated by a Student ('Withdrawal')

- 2.1 To withdraw from CHC, an overseas student must:
 - 2.1.1 formally notify CHC of their intention to withdraw by submitting an Advice of Withdrawal form; and
 - 2.1.2 make payment of any outstanding monies, such as tuition fees, transfer of credit fees, Library fines, etc.
- 2.2 Other written or verbal means of communication, such as emails, telephone calls and conversations, are not accepted as notice of an overseas student's intention to withdraw.
- 2.3 The effective date of withdrawal is the latest of the dates upon which the overseas student satisfies all requirements of Policy Provision 2.1.
- 2.4 The Academic Registrar will communicate the outcome of the application to the overseas student in writing, including a statement that the withdrawal may have implications for the overseas student's visa and that they should contact the Department of Home Affairs for further advice. A copy of this letter will be placed on the overseas student's file.
- 2.5 The Academic Registrar (or delegate) will notify the Department via PRISMS of the overseas student's withdrawal and will cancel the overseas student's CoE.

3. Cancellation of Enrolment Initiated by CHC

- 3.1 Situations that may constitute grounds for the cancelling of an overseas student's enrolment by CHC may come to CHC's attention through a range of circumstances and/or sources. The accuracy of such information must be determined prior to a formal notice being issued of CHC's intention to cancel an overseas student's enrolment.
- 3.2 The processes engaged to determine the accuracy of information that alleges a breach of CHC Policy: Student Code of Conduct and/or CHC Policy: Academic Integrity by an overseas student will be conducted according to the relevant policy.
- 3.3 The processes engaged to determine the accuracy of information that alleges a failure on the part of an overseas student to maintain satisfactory course progress will be conducted according to CHC Policy: Review of Academic Progress for Overseas Students.
- 3.4 The processes engaged to determine the accuracy of information regarding other alleged grounds for cancelling an overseas student's enrolment, including failure by an overseas student to pay a required amount to undertake or continue their course of study as stated in the Written Agreement, will be conducted by the CHC staff member who has responsibility for the area that is related to the alleged grounds for cancellation.
- 3.5 The processes engaged under Policy Provisions 3.2-3.4 may include, but are not limited to:
 - 3.5.1 written or verbal communication with the overseas student and other parties to the situation; and
 - 3.5.2 interviews with the overseas student and other parties to the situation.
- 3.6 The Academic Registrar is to be informed of all cases where grounds are alleged to exist that might lead to the cancelling of an overseas student's enrolment.
- 3.7 The overseas student will have access to learning opportunities for the duration of the processes engaged to determine the accuracy of information.
- 3.8 An overseas student who is the subject of processes that are related to the cancellation of their enrolment by CHC may be assisted by a third party, provided that this person is not a lawyer.
- 3.9 The Academic Registrar is to be informed of the outcome of all processes engaged under Policy Provisions 3.2-3.4.
- 3.10 CHC will retain confidential records of allegations as described in Policy Provision 3.1, the processes engaged to determine the accuracy of information, and the outcome of these processes. This record will be placed on the overseas student's file and sealed for access by the Academic Registrar only. Parties to these processes will be allowed supervised access to these records.
- 3.11 If the processes engaged under Policy Provisions 3.2-3.4 conclude that grounds exist for an overseas student's enrolment to be cancelled, the Academic Registrar will inform the overseas student of the recommendation to cancel their enrolment by issuing a written Notice of Intent to Report.
- 3.12 Upon receipt of this notification, an overseas student has 20 working days in which to access the grievance process, unless extenuating circumstances exist (see Policy Provision 3.17).
- 3.13 An overseas student who has been issued with a written Notice of Intent to Report may or may not be offered learning opportunities throughout the 20 working days and/or any subsequent appeal process.
- 3.14 If a decision is made not to provide learning opportunities to the overseas student during the 20 working days and/or a subsequent grievance process, and the grievance process finds in the favour of the overseas student, and it is impracticable for the overseas student to complete the requirements of a unit(s) due to the reduced or withdrawn learning opportunities, the overseas student will be:

- 3.14.1 eligible for a refund of the tuition fees paid for the affected unit(s); and
- 3.14.2 required to enrol in the same unit(s), or a comparable unit(s), in a subsequent semester(s).
- 3.15 In cases where the duration of an overseas student's course enrolment requires extending due to Policy Provision 3.14.2, the Academic Registrar (or delegate) will issue the overseas student with a revised CoE as required.
- 3.16 CHC will not report the cancellation of the overseas student's enrolment to the Department of Education and Training (the Department) via PRISMS during the twenty (20) working day period and the overseas student's enrolment status will remain active unless extenuating circumstances exist (see Policy Provision 3.17).
- 3.17 Extenuating circumstances are those in which it is deemed that the overseas student's health or wellbeing, or the wellbeing of others, is likely to be at risk. Such circumstances may include, but are not limited to, when the overseas student:
 - 3.17.1 is missing;
 - 3.17.2 has medical concerns, severe depression or psychological issues which lead the provider to fear for the overseas student's wellbeing;
 - 3.17.3 has engaged or threatens to engage in behaviour that is reasonably believed to endanger the overseas student or others; or
 - 3.17.4 is at risk of committing a criminal offence.
- 3.18 Where extenuating circumstances are deemed to exist, the overseas student does not have to be given opportunity to access the grievance process and the overseas student's enrolment may be cancelled with immediate effect and the cancellation reported to the Department.
- 3.19 If the overseas student does not access the grievance process within the twenty (20) working day period, and extenuating circumstances are not deemed to exist, CHC will report the cancellation of the overseas student's enrolment to the Department on the working day following the expiry of the twenty (20) working day period.
- 3.20 If the overseas student accesses the grievance process, and extenuating circumstances are not deemed to exist, the overseas student's enrolment status will remain active during the various stages of the policy process.
- 3.21 If the overseas student accesses the grievance process, and extenuating circumstances are not deemed to exist, CHC will not report the cancellation of the overseas student's enrolment to the Department until at least the formal internal review stage of the policy process is completed.
- 3.22 If the formal internal review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of the overseas student, CHC will not cancel the overseas student's enrolment and will not report the overseas student to the Department.
- 3.23 If the formal internal review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of CHC and the overseas student does not accept the outcome, the overseas student may access the external review stage of the policy process.
- 3.24 If the formal internal review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of CHC and the overseas student does not access the external review stage of the policy process, CHC will cancel the overseas student's enrolment and will report the overseas student to the Department.
- 3.25 If the formal internal review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of CHC and the overseas student does access the external review stage of the policy process, CHC will not report the cancellation of the overseas student's enrolment to the Department until this stage of the policy process is completed.

- 3.26 If the external review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of the overseas student, CHC will not cancel the overseas student's enrolment and will not report the overseas student to the Department.
- 3.27 If the external review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of CHC, CHC will cancel the overseas student's enrolment and will report the overseas student to the Department.
- 3.28 If the external review process conducted under the provisions of the grievance process is concluded in favour of CHC and the overseas student does not accept the outcome, the overseas student can access other external appeals processes. In this case, however, CHC does not have to assist the overseas student with finding further appropriate appeals processes.
- 3.29 If the review processes conducted under the provisions of the grievance process are concluded in favour of CHC, CHC will cancel the overseas student's enrolment and will report the overseas student to the Department.
- 3.30 The overseas student will be notified of the cancellation of their enrolment in writing and a copy of this letter will be placed on the overseas student's file. CHC will inform the overseas student that the cancellation of their enrolment may affect their student visa and advise the student to contact the Department of Home Affairs for further information.
- 3.31 Overseas students whose enrolment has been cancelled by CHC must abide by any decisions made by the Department of Home Affairs with regard to their permission to remain in Australia.

4. Financial Penalties for Withdrawal by a Student

- 4.1 Financial penalties apply to withdrawal by an overseas student. These are determined by the date on which the withdrawal takes effect (see Policy Provision 2.3) in relation to the administrative dates declared for that semester on the CHC Calendar (see Supporting Procedures and Guidelines 1).
- 4.2 Applications for withdrawal prior to the census date of a semester attract a Withdrawal fee. This fee is published in October of each preceding year on the CHC website.
- 4.3 Withdrawal from CHC after the census date of a semester incurs the payment of all tuition fees for the units in which the overseas student was enrolled in that semester unless 'special circumstances', as defined in CHC Policy: Refunds for Overseas Students, are demonstrated.

5. Financial Penalties for Cancellation of Enrolment Initiated by CHC

- 5.1 If CHC cancels the enrolment of an overseas student at any point in the semester for reasons of misconduct (Policy Provision 1.4.1), no refunds will be given.
- 5.2 If CHC cancels the enrolment of an overseas student at any point in the semester for failing to pay a required amount to undertake or continue in a course of study (Policy Provision 1.4.2), no refunds will be given.
- 5.3 If CHC cancels the enrolment of an overseas student at the end of a semester for reasons of failing to maintain satisfactory course progress (Policy Provision 1.4.3), refunds will be made of any unspent tuition fees for the subsequent semester(s).

6. Academic Penalties for Withdrawal by a Student

- 6.1 Academic penalties apply to withdrawal by an overseas student. These are determined by the date on which the withdrawal takes effect (see Policy Provision 2.3) in relation to the administrative dates declared for that semester on the CHC Calendar (see Supporting Procedures and Guidelines 1).
- 6.2 The relevant exit results are recorded on the overseas student's official academic transcript.

7. Academic Penalties for Cancellation of Enrolment by CHC

- 7.1 Academic penalties apply to the cancellation of enrolment by CHC for reasons of gross misconduct and this applies regardless of when in the semester the cancellation occurs.
- 7.2 Exit results of 'WF' (Withdraw Fail) will be recorded on the overseas student's academic transcript for all units in which the overseas student is enrolled at the time of the cancellation.
