Rationale	Enduring Understanding: Management of the classroom and student motivation are essential for students to learn effectively. In this unit pre-service teachers will examine a range of models and theories of management appropriate for Prep-Year 2 and Year 3-6 learners including students from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and other cultural backgrounds. The unit investigates theories and practices of classroom management and motivation for the Prep-Year 2 and Year 3-6 aged learners. Through engaging with this unit pre-service teachers will develop personal theories of practice in relation to the motivation and management of Prep-Year 2 and Year 3-6 learners. This second professional experience unit will see a continued development of planning, teaching, organisational skills and reflection for personal growth as pre-service teachers continue to plan and teach individual lessons, consecutive lessons and full days of continuous teaching. There will also be a focus on organisation, motivation and management in primary school contexts.
Prescribed text(s)	Selected readings will be available via the Moodle™ site for this unit.
