The Witherspoon Fellowship
Reimagining Leadership
The Millis Institute | Brisbane | June 23-24 2017

The Witherspoon Fellowship is a two-day gathering for emerging leaders in Brisbane, led by the Millis Institute Director, Dr Ryan Messmore, Christian Heritage College President, Dr Darren Iselin and Dr Dave Benson.
The goal is to form a fellowship of students looking for a different approach to leadership. Inspired by the story of John Witherspoon, this program provides students a grounding in the liberal arts that prepares them to engage pressing questions of our day. Through discussing works from Socrates to C.S. Lewis, young leaders engage foundational truths about culture, faith and human flourishing and apply those insights to contemporary issues.

During the gathering, attendees participate in formative (and fun) activities, including: discussion-based seminars focused on the great minds and great ideas of Western Civilisation; public-speaking and debate training; and ballroom dancing lessons. Tuition for the two-day gathering is $70 (which covers all sessions and food).

The Witherspoon Fellowship advances the goals of the Millis Institute, including the cultivation of a Christian worldview, a sense of calling, and critical thinking and communication skills that improve leadership.
